THE LATEST SLATE.

All but the Navy Portfolio Said to be Decided

Depew, Windom and Wanamaker on All the Slates.

Platt and Miller no Longer Considered Possibilities.

The Navy May Still Go to New York State.

Cabinet Making.

WASHINGTON, February 28.—The impression prevails in some circles to-night that the cabinet of the coming administration is complete with the exception to be announced and that no further change will be made in the slate as at present arranged. The slate that receives the most credence is as follows: Secretary of state, Jas. G. Blaine; secretary of the treasury, Wm. Windom; secretary of war, Redfield Proctor; secretary of the navy to be filled; secretary of the interior, John F. Swift; attorney general, John W. Noble; postmaster general, John Wanamaker; secretary of agriculture, Jeremiah Rusk.

It is said to-night that Platt and Miller are distinctly out of the race and that the Platt men are much annoyed. New York may get a cabinet place but it depends entirely upon the temper of her politicians. General Harrison after hearing a great deal about the situation in the Empire state told Morton that if the republicans there, without regard to former personal difficulties, could unite in recommending some one man for a cabinet place, that man would have his most favorable consideration. If such harmony can be brought about the man named will be given the navy portfolio.

Senator Palmer is not believed to be a possibility any longer. General Harrison is also reported to have said to a friend from Illinois that where a certain state had presented a man for cabinet honors and it had been inexpedient to place him on the list it was hardly to be expected that a man not so presented could be supported should he be chosen. This is taken to dispose of the chances of Gov. A. Tureau of Nebraska for secretary of agriculture, who had been suggested when John M. Thurston's name was first put out, and would equally apply to General Alger and Senator Palmer.

W. H. H. Miller, the ex-law partner of President elect Harrison, who recommended him to this city and whose name has been often mentioned as the coming attorney general is now talked of for solicitor general. He said there was no foundation for the story printed this morning from Toledo that he had written a friend there saying that he had got the position of attorney general as a result of Congressman Belden's visit to the New York delegation last night. It is believed to-day that they will support General Geo Sharpe for collector of the port of New York.

House of Commons Notes.

LONDON, February 28.—Sexton gave notice in the House of commons this afternoon that he would make a motion to-morrow and Major Saunderson, conservative, disclose the names of the officers known to associate themselves with Dr Sanderson and violate their oath of allegiance to the crown in the event of home rule parliament being granted Ireland.

Reply to a question, Smith, the government leader, declared that nobody on behalf of the government had intimated that the Times would be remunerated by parliamentary grant for expenses in connection with the Parnell commission. He only asked whether attention had been called to the fact that as far back as October the attorney general had received a statement from Pigott to the effect that he could not bear a cross examination before the commission. [Parnell cheering] having regard for this fact, did the government retain its confidence in Attorney General Webster? He said that due notice of the question would be given if Healy's references to Sir Richard Webster's discharge of duties as attorney general. Healy moved the adjournment of the house to the effect that the action of the attorney general had forfeited confidence.

After resuming the debate on the queen's reply to the speech from the throne, charged the Irish executive with having resorted to the means of repression in order to discredit the movement. They were before the criticism of parliament immediately after parliament was prorogued. Le Fevre, the first step executive was to prosecute eleven members. In resisting the efforts of these ordinary prisoners the officials had the opinion of the world on their side. Chamberlain held that speakers of the opposition had the debate sterile by avoiding the issue. Why didn't the opposition, when it gave the country the reasons for leaving the present policy? Let the house, if it possessed a policy, propose a series of resolutions expressing it. By a large section of parliament it agree with it. At least the house of the country would then be able to deal with something definite. He called for the opposition to place the issue on a broad and sound basis, to enable the house fully what was before the country. Ireland and bring it to an end of hearts with interests.

Southern Ute Bill Delayed.

WASHINGTON, February 28.—Several members of the house committee on Indian affairs authorized the bill reported favorably the agreement with the Southern Utes in Colorado. Since that time the bill had been reported to the senate committee on Indian affairs, and it was found that the committee desired to be heard before it was reported back to the house. Chairman Cutcheon of that committee this morning said he would call the committee together and will give further consideration to the matter looking final action.

Outrage in Pennsylvania.

NEW BRIGHTON, Pa., February 28.—Last night Secretary of Herman Undergrad, of Beaver Falls, living ten miles east of this place, was stopped by two masked men and robbed of $13 which they seized. Undergrad resisted and the men shot him, killing almost instantly. His aged mother witnessed the murder but was too old and feeble to be of any assistance to her boy. The murderers escaped. The whole community is deeply excited over the affair and every effort will be made to apprehend the murderers.

Stock Market.

NEW YORK, February 28.—The stock market was strong on the upturn of the day and closed weak, about everything on the list from 1 to 2 per cent lower, with the exception of Reading, which is 1/2 higher. Sales were marked in the following:

Republican League Convention.

BALTIMORE, February 28.—When President James P. Foster called the convention of the national league of republican clubs to order this afternoon there was a large attendance. President Foster briefly stated the reason for the holding of the convention at this time and congratulated the league on the result of its work last fall. He spoke of the rapid growth of the league and said that at the head of its constitutional principles was the doctrine of protection. Next Monday its banner would be found. He congratulated the republican party on the accession of four new republican states. His allusion to Blaine as the most secretary of state was greeted with an outburst of enthusiastic cheering. The roll call was answered by nearly 200 delegates from North Dakota, South Dakota, Washington and New Mexico. They were greeted with great applause as they stood to answer to their names.

Hanly Committed.

WASHINGTON, February 28.—The congressional committee appointed to investigate the charges of fraud in the construction of the new Washington aqueduct has made a report which says: "Beyond all question substantially the whole and every part of the lining of the tunnel is absolutely and enormously defective, and it is scarcely too much to say that there is hardly any continuous length of ten feet in the whole lining where the backing, particularly over the arch, is not so badly constructed as to make the whole backing of the lining entirely worthless." The report says it would take nearly one million dollars to put the tunnel in good shape and recommended that it be abandoned and iron pipe be substituted at a cost of a half million dollars.

Broad Sword Contest.

PUEBLO, February 28.—The broad sword contest this afternoon between Professor Paul C. Rizzarelli of Leadville, Colorado, and Captain Tom Shields of Wichita, Kansas, resulted in a draw after twenty five interesting rounds. Mayor Fay acted as referee. Not less than 5000 persons witnessed the event. Shields is a powerfully built man, but lacks the skill of the Frenchman. The horses were new at the business and by no means refreshed the several encounters. It is more than probable that another meeting will be arranged within a few days.

Quits on the Carnival.

PUEBLO, February 29.—Five prominent gentlemen of this city have accepted the trust of furnishing the queen for the Mardi Gras of 1890. It is asked out to-day that correspondence has already commenced with Mrs. Langtry and that "Jersey Lily" has been or rather will be offered $5000 for three days services as queen of the carnival. It is expected that an engagement at the auditorium for three or four evenings would pay the lady $5000 more which would make $10,000 for her weeks work.

Six New Indictments.

NEW YORK, February 29.—Six new indictments have been ordered against Ives and Stewart for forgery, larceny and fraudulent issue of stock. Bookkeeper Woodruff is revealing to the district attorney what he knows of his employers' methods. His narrative is not complete. It is said that Woodruff's statements incriminate Mr Dorcmus, a partner of Ives and Stewart, to a great degree, and that this branch of the subject is to be investigated by the grand jury.

Killed His Wife.

PATTERSON, N. J., February 28.—Mrs. Anthony Lance, the wife of a young Hollander living here, left her husband several months ago on account of his harshness and went to work as a domestic. To-day he called at the house where she was at work and after a brief conversation shot her in a fatal place. The wound died to-night. Lance was captured this afternoon. He had cut himself badly and is very weak from loss of blood.

Colorado Legislature.

DENVER, February 28.—Both branches of the legislature reassembled at 10 o'clock this morning. Three unimportant bills were passed by the house and after considerable committee work in both houses, they, at 10 o'clock, adjourned to attend an exhibition at the opera house given by the deaf and dumb mutes from the state asylum.

Pinkerton Strike.

PITTSBURG, Pa., February 28.—The Amalgamated puddlers of the Republic iron works on the south side went out on a strike this morning owing to the refusal of the manager of the mill to reinstate a puddler who was discharged because of his not reporting for work when he had been sent for in election day. Eight hundred men are out.

To Ratify the Agreement.

WASHINGTON, February 28.—Senator Bowen to-day introduced in the senate a proposed amendment to the Indian appropriation bill to ratify and confirm the agreement made in November last with the Southern Ute Indians of Colorado and appropriating $80,500 to carry out the provisions of the agreement.

Congratulating Parnell.

OTTAWA, February 28.—The Irish senators and members of parliament of both politics and many French Canadian members of both houses dispatched this afternoon two telegrams to Parnell congratulating him on the collapse of the Times' alleged conspiracy case.

A Missing Man.

NEW YORK, February 28.—A. B. Cleveland, president of the A. B. Cleveland company, the wholesale seed merchants, has been missing three weeks. It is said that he provided himself out of the company's funds and by loans, with over $10,000 before leaving.

President Cleveland to Join Harrison at Willard's.

The Senate Committee Announces the Official Order.

Great Demand for Tickets to the Inauguration Ball.

Inauguration Arrangements.

WASHINGTON, February 28.—To-morrow morning the president elect has arranged to receive a number of the members of congress. Among the many Reed, Anderson of Kansas, and Cooper of Ohio. The president elect and the president elect on the morning of inauguration day will go to Willard's hotel, where they will occupy parlors at the corner of Sixteenth street and Pennsylvania avenue. President Cleveland will call for them there and escort them to the capitol. The city is assuming a holiday appearance. Flags and banners are being put upon the buildings along the line of the procession and work on the stands and at the polices office is approaching completion. There is a large demand for tickets for the ball and it is expected that they will all be disposed of before the night of the Fourth.

The senate committee on arrangements has issued an official order of the proceedings at the capitol on Monday. The building will be opened at 10 o'clock to those holding cards of admission, and at 11 o'clock the senate chamber will be thrown open. The blue gallery will be reserved for the families of the members of the senate and house of representatives, justices of the supreme court, army and navy officers, heads of departments and other high officials. The vice president-elect will take the oath of office in the senate chamber. After the organization of the senate the procession will be formed and march to the stand erected on the east front of the main part of the capitol where General Harrison will deliver his inaugural and be sworn in. If the weather should be stormy the ceremony will take place in the senate chamber. On Saturday morning the signal service will issue an official weather prediction for inauguration day.

Fifteenth Census.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, February 28.—The amendment to the senate bill in regard to the relative territories of Alaska extending its operation to the Behring sea was presented and referred, on motion of Edmunds, to the committee on foreign relations.

On motion of Sherman, who said he had important business requiring consideration at once, the senate went into executive session.

When the doors were reopened a large number of bridge bills were passed.

The house bill granting the Wyoming Midland Railway company the right of way through the Wind river or Shoshone Indian reservation was passed with amendments.

The postoffice appropriation bill was passed with amendments, one of which provides that there shall not be allowed to any third class postoffice for rent any sum in excess of $600, nor for fuel and lights any sum in excess of $60 for one year.

The senate then went into executive session.

The senate continued in secret session till 6 o'clock, when the doors were opened and legislative business was resumed.

A conference was ordered on the naval appropriation bill and conferees appointed on the part of the senate.

The conference reports on the army appropriation bill, on the fortifications bill and on the bill to withdraw certain public lands from private entry were presented and agreed to.

The senate then took a recess until 7:30 p. m.

At the evening session there was no quorum and after a fruitless delay and much discussion the senate adjourned.

HOUSE.

The speaker laid before the house the senate bill for the protection of the seal moon fisheries of Alaska.

Dunn of Arkansas offered an amendment directing the president to cause one or more United States vessels to cruise in the Behring sea and other Alaskan waters and to seize all vessels unlawfully engaged in seal hunting. Dunn explained that the sole object of this amendment was to enforce the existing law.

The amendment was adopted and the bill passed.

After some talk in which Bland, of Missouri antagonized a bill for a public building with a view to hanging up the California contested election case, the speaker was authorized to appoint a committee to co-operate with the senate committee to arrange for Harrison's inauguration.

Hatch of Missouri presented the conference report on the agricultural appropriation bill and explained how the differences between the two houses mainly relating to sugar experiments had been adjusted. The report was agreed to.

The committee on naval affairs reported the navy appropriation bill with the senate amendments recommending concurrence in some and non concurrence in others.

After a long debate the senate amendments to the bill were taken up.

Herbert moved to concur in the senate amendment appropriating $100,000 for the construction of rebuilding for use as a naval torpedo station on Goat Island, which was agreed to.

Other non-agreeing votes of the committee on naval affairs were agreed to and the bill was sent to the conference committee.

Holmes of Iowa called up as a privileged question the Des Moines river land bill which was vetoed by the president, pending which Crisp presented various conference reports upon bills for the establishment of sundry lighthouses and lights and they were all agreed to.

Steele, of Indiana presented the conference report on the bill for the relief of certain volunteer soldiers of the late war and of the war with Mexico which was agreed to.

Peel, of Arkansas submitted the conference report on the bill to divide the Sioux Indian reservation in Dakota which was agreed to.

Holmes again called up the Des Moines river land bill and Crisp raised the question of consideration, pending which the

A Fireman Killed.

MILWAUKEE, February 28.—A fire to-night destroyed a building occupied by Leuck & Co. ordinary causing a loss of $75,000. When the firemen were practically extinguished, four floors fell in carrying a dozen firemen in the basement below. Their comrades quickly rescued them and all but one by one they were slowly extricated. The work occupied more than an hour. Edward Sonnen was taken out dead. Eleven others were badly burned and injured. Edward McGinley and Otto Elman will probably die.

Iron Clads for the Navy.

WASHINGTON, February 28.—The secretary of the navy has entered into a contract with J. N. H. Patrick of Long Point, Long Island, to furnish three controllable automatic torpedoes for use in the navy at a total cost of $55,000. Each torpedo is to carry four hundred pounds of dynamite and is to be guaranteed to reach one statute mile at the rate of twenty knots an hour. The first one is to be delivered within five months and the other two within seven months.

Murder in Roxbury.

BOSTON, Mass., February 28.—Edward Colburn, a traveling salesman, 25 years of age, shot and killed his wife to night at their home in Roxbury. The murderer then went to the Madison Park hotel in Madison park, where he shot himself twice in the face and can live but a few hours at the most. His motive is not known. The couple had been married about a year.

Tupper to Succeed West.

OTTAWA, February 28.—Sir Charles Tupper is expected here to-morrow. The impression gains ground that he will go Washington to succeed Lord Sackville West if Sir John MacDonald does not accept the offer of the Salisbury government.

Delegrats Win.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., February 28.—Governor Wilson to-day issued certificates of election to J. D. Anderson, democrat from the Third congressional and J. M. Jackson, democrat, from the Fourth district.

Base Ball.

It is hoped that the interest in base ball will be greater this year than ever before in Colorado Springs. A state league has been formed, comprised of Colorado Springs, Denver, Pueblo, Aspen and Leadville, and it will probably be joined by Trinidad. The season will be a busy one, beginning in this city March 30th. A series will be played between the league games for the championship of the state will begin, and as the base ball associations in the cities named are doing their best to obtain good nines, the games promise to be well contested. The Colorado Springs association has at this time signed ten players and is in correspondence with others. The management would remind those interested in base ball that the expenses in the first part of the season, now close at hand, will be greatly disproportional to the receipts, and all who desire the success of base ball in this city and who wish the pennant to be won by Colorado Springs are urged to subscribe to the stock of the association. The shares have been put at a low figure, ten dollars each, so that at least one may be within reach of everyone wishing to aid the. Shares may be obtained at the company's office in the building of the Western Building & Supply company. Owing to the near approach of the commencement of the season, those who intend to subscribe are requested to communicate as soon as possible with the secretary of the association. HENRY S. WOODRUFF.

ARTHUR M. BAKER, President.
Secretary.

Some time next week, probably March 7th, a mammoth edition of the Green Mountain Falls Echo will be issued, containing a general write up of Colorado Springs, Green Mountain Falls, and all towns and points of interest in their vicinity. Ten thousand copies will be printed and thoroughly circulated. The paper is to contain a review of the business and other interests of the county. There will be fifty cuts used and the edition will be printed on fine book paper. It will furnish not only a good means of advertising, but will show the advantage of El Paso county as a place of residence in its best light. It will be a paper to circulate among your friends in the east.

The announcement at a late hour yesterday afternoon that Mr. Edgar T. Ensign had resigned his position as a United States commissioner and that Judge J. B. Severs had been appointed as his successor was a great surprise to a majority of citizens. Mr. Ensign has held the office for a number of years. Both he and Judge Severs have been at work from the city for several days. For two days past a number of persons from near Florissant have been in the city awaiting the return of the commissioner to hear some cases brought by a government timber inspector for illegally cutting timber.

Are 100 to 140 feet in width. THE ALLEYS are all 20 feet wide. There are no 60 or 80 feet streets, and narrow, 10-feet alleys, such as are found in other loudly advertised "Additions," with high sounding titles, where you pay high prices for lots, without duly considering that you are throwing away your money.

In the Alley Behind Every Lot in Parrish's Addition

There is a 3-inch Water Pipe, connected at Chestnut street with a 16-inch main; the Largest in the City's System. THE MAIN CITY DITCH, taking pure, clear water from the Fountain, runs just back of PARRISH'S ADDITION, and within a stone's throw of it.

T. W. SHANAHAN, Corps Signal Corps.

Dr B F D Adams and wife, Mr. Edward Adams and Mr B W Steele left on yesterday morning's Denver, Texas & Ft. Worth train for an extended tour in Texas

The Ladies' Aid society of St Andrew's chapel Manitou will give an entertainment at Emerson hall, that city, on Friday evening. There will be dancing and refreshments. A number from this city will probably attend

The pupils of the Mute and Blind institute will give an entertainment in the Tabor Grand opera house Denver, to-morrow afternoon in honor of the members of the state legislature. Handsome invitations have been issued by the pupils for the occasion

The "Union Spy," which Company A will produce on Saturday evening at the opera house, is a splendid military drama, of absorbing interest, stirring scenes of war times. It is filled with patriotic speeches and sentiments calculated to enthuse the coldest heart into loyalty. It should be seen by all.

Sutton's Big Double Uncle Tom's Cabin company is booked to appear at the opera house next Monday evening. This company comes direct from the east and is said to be the largest and strongest Uncle Tom's Cabin combination now traveling. They have a number of new features.

It is stated that a complaint has been lodged with the Humane society regarding the treatment of some of the ponies at a recent game of polo. If any such ill treatment has thoughtlessly been permitted to occur we feel sure that the attention of the club having been drawn to the matter great care will henceforth be taken in the treatment of the ponies

While Weigart & Shatois' coal wagon was being unloaded on Huerfano St. yesterday noon, the horses started to run, and when near the corner of Tejon street, the doubletree bolt broke and let the horses free from the wagon. They turned south on Tejon street and dashed into the plate glass of Stark's hardware store. The large side glass in the south window was completely demolished, but, strange to say, the horses were not injured. The window was worth $75, but was insured.

A very important addition to be made next term to the faculty of Colorado College. Mademoiselle F. C. Graf has accepted the invitation of the trustees to take charge of the department of modern languages and the college is to be congratulated in being able to secure one of the very choicest of teachers and at the same time a person of unusual cultivation and refinement. Mademoiselle Graf is a native of Switzerland and has had unusual advantages as a resident of French and German both in England and America. This fact is another indication that the new management is determined in whatever additions are made to the corps of instruction to secure only the best teachers.

It is probable that the spring term of the district court will begin next Monday. Both houses of the legislature have passed house bill No. 218, and it now only awaits the signature of the governor to become a law. This bill is "An act effecting the courts of the Fourth judicial district," and by its provisions the beginning of the spring term of the district court of El Paso county is changed from the last to the first Monday in March. If the governor signs the bill in time court will begin next Monday. District Attorney Garrison arrived in the city yesterday to make the necessary arrangements and District Clerk Howbert goes to Denver today to make the matter. The time is so short that it will take considerable rustling to notify the witnesses and jurors

West Virginia has disposed of the senatorial contest, but some excitement is still in store for the citizens of that state. General Goff announces his intention of taking the oath of office as governor on March 4, and the friends of Judge Fleming declare that he will not be allowed to exercise the duties of that office.

General Rosser's speech at the banquet of ex-confederates, held in Baltimore last week, seems to have been characteristically bitter. Among other funny things he said, "A southern gentleman can whip a puritanical Yankee every time." He also said he was "tired of Gettysburg reunions and blue and grey love feasts, which politicians are holding." General Rosser has quite a reputation as a dinner table warrior, and he is evidently determined not to lose it.

It is officially announced now that the contract has been let for the foundations of the great Metropole hotel in Denver. Sometime ago the contract was let for digging the basement of this far famed hotel. Not only was the contract let but carried out. As a result Denver has in the centre of the city an immense and unsightly hole in the ground. Not only is it a constant eyesore but also a source of considerable expense. Now this hole is to have a foundation added to it which will not only add greatly to the beauty of the excavation but it will also encourage the good people of Denver in the belief that they are some day to have this long promised hotel.

Wesleyan university is getting a good deal of free advertising of a kind that is not calculated to do that institution much good. Washington's birthday is usually celebrated at Wesleyan by firing cannon, but the faculty objected to that this year, and in deference to their wishes the time honored custom was abandoned. However, just to have a little "innocent amusement" and to vary the monotony of the day, some of the freshmen procured a few dynamite bombs. These bombs were exploded in the college buildings, doing several hundred dollars' worth of damage and severely, perhaps fatally, injuring one of the students. This may be called innocent amusement at Wesleyan, but criminal folly is a better name for it.

Among the first appointments which President Harrison will have to make will be a superintendent of the census. It is understood that there are as many applicants for the place as there are for every other place within the gift of the executive. The superintendent will this time have a salary of $6,000 per year instead of $5,000 which the last one received. He will be assisted in his work by ten chiefs of divisions and one hundred and seventy-five supervisors, to do an army of under officials. The census this time will be much more complete than the last and will require considerably more labor in preparing it, so that it is absolutely necessary that work on it should commence at the earliest possible moment.

The failure of the republicans of the Fourth congressional district of Missouri to elect their candidate as the successor of the late James M. Burnes seems to have been largely due to a lack of interest and active work. Had Mr. Burnes lived he would probably have been returned for some terms to come, for he proved himself an able and useful legislator, and aside from that was personally popular with his party, both at home and abroad. But with his death an opportunity was presented to the republicans to fill the vacancy. When a few weeks ago the republicans nominated a candidate for the seat they made an admirable selection in Mr. Pegram, and there is but little doubt that he would have been elected had the campaign which followed the nomination been pushed energetically. But feeling that they no longer had to cope with the popularity of Mr. Burnes the leaders of the party became over confident and depended almost entirely on the personal strength of their candidate to carry them through. The democrats on the other hand made an energetic canvass in behalf of their candidate, Mr. Wilson, and as a result he was elected, though by the very small plurality of 555. Mr. Burnes had a plurality last November of 3,155. This shows a democratic loss of 2,500.

There are certain democratic newspapers which are constantly declaring that the cabinet is to be a distinctly Blaine cabinet. Every new man who is mentioned for a portfolio is pointed to as one who has been dictated by Blaine. The New York Tribune says:

These democratic newspapers which are pointing to the alleged selection of Mr. Wa... as a proof that this is to be a Blaine cabinet must be afflicted just now with shorter memories than usual. Most of us whose recollection goes as far back as 1880, have not forgotten that Mr Windom prevented the nomination of Mr Blaine in the convention of that year by bringing the vote of Minnesota finally for Gen. Garfield, and so defeating that combination which could have been made then with that hope and was made with it upon Garfield later. Wherever Mr Windom may be credited, he certainly cannot be counted as a Blaine man. At the same time there is no reason to suppose that this incident ever caused any friction or ill-feeling between the two men. A great many of the moves made in politics are to be explained only on the principle of tactics, and not all of them, thank God, are prompted by personal motives alone.
